To

The General Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to G.O.No. 11691-2/Med 139-28 dated 18-3-29 sanctioning a loan of £.500 to Mr. A.C. Pani, in furtherance of his medical studies in England, I have the honour to forward herewith, for the orders of Government, a representation in original, received from Mr. Pani requesting that the repayment of the loan may be waived.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

S. Subba Rao

Senior Surgeon.

DGR.

Bangalore, 25th Dec: 1934.

From,

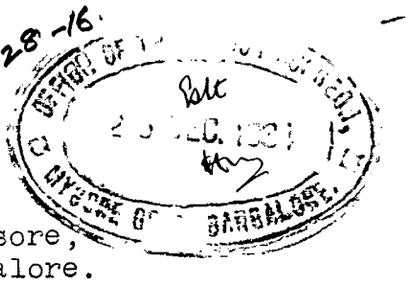
L.C.128-16.



To,
The Senior Surgeon
with the Government of Mysore,
Bangalore.

Sir,

I cannot be sufficiently grateful for the kind help given to me by the Government by way of a loan of £ 500/-in furtherance of my medical studies in England.

I had hoped that after my return home duly qualifying myself for Dental work, my services would be utilised by Government and that I would be enabled to pay off the loan by instalments to be deducted out of my pay as is done in the case of all the Medical Officers who have received similar assistance by Government. (It is not very long ago, Sir, that an Officer who was granted a loan for higher medical studies was employed under Government and the loan is ordered to be recovered in monthly instalments from his pay.)

Although I am the first Mysorean who has specialised in this branch of Surgery, I find to my misfortune that there has been no scope for me to render my services to the state and to discharge the loan sanctioned to me.

In the expectation of being called upon at a not remote date to serve the Government, I started private practice in Dentistry in Bangalore. Owing to general trade depression the results of my efforts in this direction have not been encouraging and my present position is such that I feel stranded and helpless. Another serious blow in my life has been the untimely death of my father the late Dr.A.K.Pani, within hardly six years of his superannuation. With this incident not only have we been deprived of the financial help to the extent of Rs500/- per mensem by way of his pension, but the whole burden of running the family has fallen on my shoulders.

I beg to submit, that my present situation is such that I am compelled to approach Government with a prayer that the repayment of the loan may kindly be ordered to be waived. For my part and in return, I shall bind myself to serve the Government whenever called upon to do so in such a capacity and on such terms as Government may decide.

Soliciting favourable orders.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Yours most obediently,
A.C. Pani
